Verse 1

The stars align, they're bowing down

From waves to oceans deep
The sun comes up, the moon goes down

My seeks refuge in your keep

Pre-Chorus

Now I can only think - how glorious your ways
How all nature shouts and echoes of you
But there's one thing I have to sing and offer you as praise
There's a perfect love that always sees me through

Chorus

Lifted high, be lifted high
There's no one above your name
You put stars in perfect place
Lifted high, be lifted high
Clothed in all your majesty
Yet you gave it up for Calvary

Verse 2

A glimpse of hope, where shadows fall
Within the walls of this heart,
A wreckage left, yet despite it all
You have loved me from the start

Pre-Chorus

Now I can only think - how glorious your ways

How all nature shouts and echoes of you

But there's one thing I have to sing and offer you as praise

There's a perfect love that always sees me through

Bridge

No one else can touch the heart and break down the walls to free

No one else can soothe the soul and push back the raging sea

When all was said and done

You gave it all for me

All for me
